

Blind: The character can't see anything. -2 Skills based on Strength and Dexterity. Trials or tasks based on vision automatically fail. All opponents are treated as having invisibility towards the blinded character. Attacking a creature invisible to it has a -1d6 attack roll, an invisible creature attacking a blind creature has a +1d6 attack roll.

Charmed:: A charmed creature cannot attack or target the charmer. Any new saving throw threat, if a clear and concrete threat automatically interrupts the effect. An ally of the charmed creature can shake it to allow it to make a new saving throw by spending 2 Actions. The charmer has +1d6 on any ability checks to interact socially with the creature.

Fatigued: Cannot run or charge and suffers a -2 penalty on Attack and Defense Rolls.

Grabbed: A grabbed character cannot move but can try to Push. He must use two Actions to free himself (ST Fortitude opposed by Strength + 1d6 by Size). He loses his Dexterity bonus on Defense and Reflex saves. He can attack with melee weapons if appropriate.

Drown/Hold breath: Hold breath equal to 6 rounds per Constitution, minimum 3 rounds. For each Action performed -1 round to . Feint air On a DC 12 Fortitude save each round to continue holding the breath. Each round, DC increases by 1.

Deafened: Automatically fails all sound-based Awareness checks and is considered Distracted when casting spells that have verbal components.

Blocked: A blocked creature has its arms blocked. He can move trying to Push, he must use two Actions to free himself (ST Fortitude opposed). He loses his Dexterity bonus on Defense and Reflex saves. A blocked spellcaster must make a critically successful Spell Check or fail to cast spells. consider Distracted.

Confused:

d100 Behavior:

01-25 Acts normally

26-50 All he does is stammer incoherently

51-75 Deals 1d8 + Strength to self with weapon in hand

76-100 Attacks closest creature (for this purpose, a Familiar counts as part of the subject itself)

Any confused creature that is attacked automatically attacks its attacker again on its next round.

Exhausted: An exhausted character moves at half speed and suffers a -4 penalty on Attack and Defense Rolls. After 1 hour of complete rest (or lesser restoration), an exhausted character becomes fatigued. A fatigued character becomes exhausted by taking an action that would normally fatigue him.

Table: Fatigue Levels

Conditions	Malus TC-Dif.-TS	Rec.	Malus

Flat-footed/Surprised: a flat-footed creature has -4 to Defence and Reflex Saving Throw. Cannot use Actions or Reactions unless explicitly permitted.

Incapacitated: An incapacitated creature cannot take actions or reactions. Melee attacks against an incapacitated creature have a +1d6 bonus. She's Flat-footed (-4 Defence and Reflex Saving Throw).

Helpless: A character asleep, unconscious, dying, or for some other reason completely at the mercy of his opponents is considered helpless. A helpless creature cannot take Actions or Reactions or speak, attacks against it have a +1d6 bonus. She has a -4 penalty to Defense. He is unaware of what is happening around him. The creature drops anything it is holding and falls prone. The creature automatically fails Fortitude and Reflex saves.

Entangled: An entangled creature can move at half speed and cannot run or charge. It takes a -2 penalty on attack rolls and a -2 penalty on Dexterity checks. An entangled character trying to cast a spell is considered Distracted.

Paralysed: Paralyzed character is frozen in place and unable to move or act, he is Helpless and can only perform mental actions.

Fear, Frightened: A frightened creature has -1d6 on attack rolls, saving throws, and Proficiency Checks as long as the source of its fear is visible. A frightened creature cannot voluntarily approach the source of its fear.

Prone: whoever is prone has a -1d6 to attack and a -4 to Defense. Getting up from prone costs 2 Actions. You cannot become prone if you fly.

Slowed: Slowed down is indicated with two values, the first indicates how many less Actions are done per round, the second the duration of the effect, if marked with a - then it has no indicated end. Ex. Slowed 1/3r, Slowed 2/-

Stunned/Knocked Out: is considered Helpless. He cannot move.

Unprepared / Surprised: A surprised/flat-footed creature has a -4 penalty to Defense and Reflex saves. No Reactions and Actions for that round.
